There were no paper bullets for the lessening of the pain in the shots fired by Dr. Lyon at the tabernacle last night, when he scored church and individuals for their negligence in "preparing the way of the Lord and making His path straight." And how some of the so-called "brothers" seemed to squirm as he pulled his verbal trigger and told them the truth more plainly than it has been their wont to hear it. And the ministers as well came in for their share of the criticism that was laid out in man-sized doses, but the force and conviction of Dr. Lyon's message impressed them with a supreme sense of their heretofore insufficiency and they willingly offered their "amen" to the prayer for a greater activity in the building up of the kingdom.

The meeting was a grand success, over 2400 persons visiting the big tabernacle. The men were there to see the men that Dr. Lyon is trying to bring into closer harmony with the Man of Galilee: men with gray hair and wrinkled brows and men with the marks of dissipation clearly showing in their physique, and they listened attentively to the admonitions of the evangelist and his aides. The musical features of the evening were, "prophetic of the larger life: the huge chorus choir, larger than it has been at any of the earlier services, in spite of the absence of Prof. Mitchell, answered splendidly to the directing personality of Mrs. Grace Powell.

Spirit of Revival Dominant.
"Revive Us Again" never sounded better than it did last night. The spirit of a great revival of spirituality was predominant. "Yes, I'll sing the wondrous story," the words rang with wondrous force throughout the tabernacle and proved a splendid prelude to the scriptural reading and sermon of the famous revivalist, magnifying the influence of Mrs. Powell's two solos, "Bravely Bear Your Burdens" and "Make Me a Channel of Blessing," by the contrast between their magnificent harmonies and the expressive individuality of the latter.

The opening prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Holler, pastor of St. John Evangelical church and was rendered in the German tongue. Simply, in the beloved "Mattersprache," the pastor invoked the spirit of God to dwell as in its first downpouring into the hearts of men, and for a great baptism of thousands in the name of and in the service of Christ, the Master. There were undoubtedly hundreds of Germans or persons of Germanic descent in the audience and the omnipresence and the infinite understanding of God was never made more appreciable than when the German pastor neared his God and reverently prayed in the language that was foreign to many, but intelligible to Him.

Receive—Then Give.
Dr. Lyon preached from the theme, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord and make his paths straight." (Luke 3:4). "Let me tell you," he expounded, "the Word of God has to come to a man before he can give it to anyone else. And you must open your heart to give a blessing if you

ONE OF THE LYON SONGS.

The Advocate will publish daily a verse and chorus of one of the Lyon evangelistic songs. These will be used during the services here and should be memorized by everyone attending the services. At least cut out the song and take it with you to the tabernacle. Mr. Mitchell will do the rest.

GLORY ALL THE WAY.
Saved by grace alone, God's own word believing
It is glory all the way!
Walking in the light, daily grace receiving,
It is glory all the way.

Chorus.
Glory! Glory! It is glory all the way,
Glory! Glory! It is glory all the way.

Not a care have I since my Savior careth,
It is glory all the way!
Guided by his eye, while with me he fareth
It is glory all the way.

would open your heart to get a blessing!

"The work and mission of John was preparing for the work of Christ and the portion of man is to make operative and effective the workings of God. There are two things that stand out in this: first, the man, and second, the message. They come in this order, for what a man is is greater than what he does. We want to learn the lessons of John's life and his gospel tonight and take them unto ourselves for our guidance in the work that we are to do for God," said the preacher.

"First, John had the element of humility, one of the fairest jewels in the crown of Christian character. Where there is great strength in a life there is apt to be also great weakness. Where there is power there is apt to be great arrogance. There are lots of us who won't argue that we're great people—we admit it! It doesn't take much to make most of us believe that we are something beyond others.

Puffed Up Like a Pup.
Dr. Lyon then told of a man to whom he recently addressed the question, "Are you a Christian?" The answer came back, "No, I don't think so, but there are lots of things that Mr. Scando does that I wouldn't think of doing, but he calls himself a Christian." Puffed up and crying like a toad or a poisoned pup! A lot seems big until it sees a plain, the hills seem great until they are overshadowed by a mountain! Oliver Wendell Holmes tells us that we can only judge the success or failure of our lives by a comparison of our fame with the successes and failures of those with whom we started out in life.

But you can't apply that standard at the judgment bar of God; when John contrasted his greatness and meanness with that of Jesus he said that there was to come "One whose shoes he was not worthy to unlatch."

John had the element of unselfishness, declared the speaker. He was willing to be simply a preacher in the wilderness. He might have been arrogant, but he wasn't, and you and I ought to have characters like that, but we haven't. Some people believe that religion depends on beef, much as they believe that Jack Johnson is greater than a Napoleon. One young lady at a revival meeting, and she had more paint on her face than she had brains in her head, turned to her companion and said, "Wasn't the speaker beautifully dressed?" I pray that you may be so interested in the messages of this revival that you will forget all about what the preacher looks like.

Dr. Lyon told of a religious conference held at the Chicago avenue church, Chicago, where a prominent worker said, "That man is yet to come whose life has been wholly given over to Jesus Christ," and one of our greatest revivalists arose and said, "I want to be that man." "That was the usefulness of John the Baptist," declared Dr. Lyon. "The power of the great Gypsy Smith was shown when he said to Dr. Torrey, 'I can take just as much pleasure and get just as much joy in your success as I can from my own.' It takes a big man to say that and mean it.

Coffin-Sized Religion.
"Let us covet the selfishness of John. Too many of us have a religion that is like the man in a coffin—it's just big enough for one! If you have no interest in the salvation of your fellow man you haven't learned the elements of salvation.

"John had the element of earnestness. I can't understand some preachers who preach as if they did not believe half they say. I'd rather have a man serve the devil if he believed in it than a man who is too lazy to serve anything good. There are a lot of men who want to shine, but they don't want to burn, and a light can't shine without burning. "A sermon that hasn't enough snap and ginger in it to make some one angry isn't much of a sermon."

Going to "Shoot Lyon."

"I was told to be careful going home on the street at night," the speaker added. "What for?" I asked. "They are going to shoot you because of the things you say," the informant replied. But listen—I am not here to please the people of Newark. I would rather have the good will than the ill will of the people of this country, but it's my duty to please the Lord, whom I serve and to whom I belong. I am here to say what the Lord wants me to say, whether you want to hear it or not, and I'm going to say it. I'd rather wheel my trunk to the station in a wheelbarrow and go back to Chicago than to do anything that would be contrary to the dictates of my conscience."

The applause that followed this mighty avowal of the evangelist's purpose to get at the very root of evil in Newark was most astonishing. It was several minutes before he was able to resume the course of (Continued on Page 9—Col. 1.)

WILL HOLD SOUTH SIDE MEETING IN BAPTIST CHAPEL

On Friday night at 7:30 o'clock the regular meeting of the South Side Citizens Association will be held in the Baptist chapel at the end of Third street on Pataskala, and it is already assured that this meeting will be largely attended by those who are in accord with the avowed purpose of the organization, the principal one of which is taking further steps toward the accomplishment of the subway construction.

The aim of this association is to bring it before the people of Newark in a manner that will be convincing that it is for the benefit of the city at large, and not by any means to only those residents south of the railroad crossings.

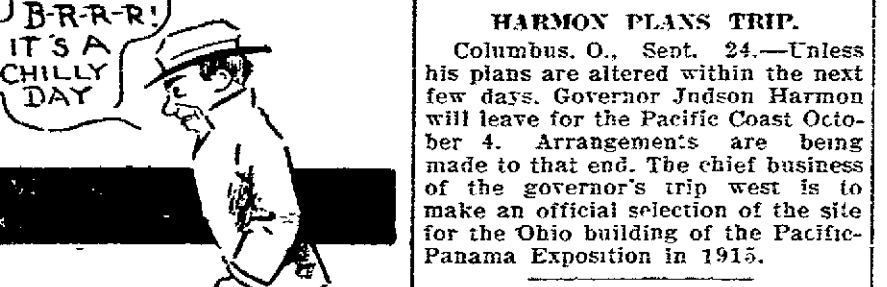

Every one interested in the welfare of Newark is invited to be present Friday night and hear the plans proposed, and discussed in detail. This meeting will bring up matters of importance to be disposed of, and it is urged that a full attendance be present.

WOULD REDUCE THE NUMBER OF TROOPS ON DUTY

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 24.—Orders were issued from the office of Adjutant General Elliott this morning, summoning all commissioned officers commanding military companies in the martial law zone to Charleston for a conference today with the adjutant general and Governor Glasscock, with a view to devising some plan by which the number of soldiers in the field may be reduced. It is stated that the daily cost of $3500 of maintaining the troops on duty is meeting with serious objection from some interests and the governor is anxious to reduce the number if it can be done without impairing the efforts of the martial law government. It is said there is no intention of reducing the boundary of the martial law zone. The refusal of the federal court yesterday to enter proceedings looking into the release of mine guards imprisoned by the order of the military commission, it is predicted today, would result in the attorneys for the guard applying to the supreme court of appeals of West Virginia for a writ of mandamus releasing the men until such time as the case to be filed in that court can be tried on its merits.

BANDITS BUSY IN CHICAGO

Scores of Robberies and Holdups Reported to Police

AUTO ROBBERS WORKING

Rob, Jeweler, Pedestrians and Even Steal a Trained Donkey.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Hooligan men and robbers of nearly every variety known to the police became extraordinarily active in Chicago last night and early today, more than a month in advance of the usual fall outbreak of lawlessness of this character.

They kept the police and detective departments on the jump for a straight 24 hours. Scores of robberies were reported and police officers are puzzled by what they term an "out of season crime wave."

Mr. and Mrs. Moritz Weickert were attacked by auto bandits in the north side. One of the thugs attempted to chloroform Mrs. Weickert while a second held a revolver at her husband's head. Weickert grappled with his assailant and Mrs. Weickert screamed. An approaching street car frightened the bandits who escaped in a large auto. This occurred in the same neighborhood where Mrs. Edmond Kaufman was killed in a similar occurrence early this year.

Four robbers rode around the city from the north to the south side and then onto the west side in a large red racing car. After robbing Roy Hardin of $200 and jewelry on West Jackson Boulevard, one of the robbers said: "Now, yell your head off and relieve your feelings. We can beat anything on wheels in this town."

E. C. Minnick was held up and robbed of $50 at Thirty-first street and Cottage Grove avenue by two young women armed with revolvers. Minnick said he at first thought the women were trying to flirt with him. Robbers who knocked down Samuel Rubin near his home in the South Side took $1 from him and missed $600 in bills which Rubin was carrying in his vest pocket.

Porch climbers who ransacked the residence of A. K. Carr in Englewood took a trained donkey from Carr's stable. When pursued the robbers placed the donkey in the tonneau of a large automobile together with several bags of plunder and escaped.

DAMAGING TESTIMONY AT SPRINGS

Before Special Commissioner in Rosenthal Murder Case

SCHPEPPS' STATEMENT

According to Postmaster at Hot Springs Was "My Evidence Will Send Becker to Chair"

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 24.—One of the declarations of Sam Schepps, Rosenthal murder case witness, to Postmaster Fred E. Johnson, of Hot Springs, according to the testimony of Mr. Johnson last night before Special Commissioner Huff, was: "My evidence will send Becker to the chair." Another declaration of Schepps, according to the postmaster, was in substance:

"If Rosenthal had not been such a 'peacher' he would not have got himself in so bad. I don't want you fellows to think we killed a man of some account. Rosenthal deserved to be killed."

Johnson, who arrested Schepps here, said he talked to him almost five hours on August 10. Schepps, he said, first begged not to be delivered to the New York police; then discussed graft, public officials, the cause leading up to the killing of Rosenthal, and declared: "I am the keynote of the whole situation."

Becker, Johnson testified, was described by Schepps as a "grafter" one never satisfied and always urging an increased donation of a gambler showed "prosperity."

C. H. Mosher, another witness, corroborated the testimony of previous witnesses as to Schepps' alleged assertion, crediting to Becker a threat to kill Rosenthal if "the gang" did not, and Rosenthal's connection with women and girls.

The ill feeling which has been brewing on the side of the defense found expression at yesterday's session when District Attorney Whitman was unqualifiedly called a liar by L. E. Sawyer, a Hot Springs lawyer, who is assisting John W. Hart, attorney for Lieutenant Becker.

The situation was extremely tense, but Whitman's cool demeanor prevented the expected clash. The rupture came over the matter of introducing witnesses before the commissioner whose names had not been given to Judge Huff by the commission. Whitman refused to have any other than the one stipulated witness examined and said the defense was playing for delay.

"You are a liar!" shouted Sawyer. "Oh, you Arkansas," retorted Whitman, laughing.

"You little shrimp," interposed Hart, leaning over the counsel table.

Court officers closed in about the three men and spectators jumped to their feet, but Whitman contented himself by looking defiantly at Hart and Sawyer and offered no reply.

As a preliminary to the calling of the witnesses Mr. Hart gave the District Attorney copies of affidavits sworn to by Gilbert Hogaboom and Michael Berkholz.

The affidavit of Hogaboom sets forth:

"Schepps said that he (Rosenthal) would turn his best friend and that he ought to have been bumped off long ago, and would have been if something had not happened. He did not say what this something was. He said the gamblers did not like him (Rosenthal) because he would turn his best friend. Schepps further said one big mistake that was made was to leave the number on the car."

Berkholz avers in his affidavit: "I asked him why they killed that poor fellow Herman Rosenthal and he said:

"Mike, you have no idea what a dirty dog he turned out to be at the last of it; that he had a place on Second avenue and had a bunch of gun men hanging around there and the gang wanted to kill most any one around there. Sam said that Rosenthal wanted to have Louie Kaufman killed."

Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream is so different from ordinary shampoos and head washes that it cannot be classed with them. You need to try it once to realize that it represents an entirely new idea in hair treatment. It cleanses the hair beautifully and makes it grow and you can use it as often as you want to. It only costs 25c a tube, enough for three or four shampoos. You can get it at Frank D. Hall's drug store. They will return your money if you don't like it.

MEAT HUNGRERS LIVES OF ELDERLY FOLKS.

Sickness and Misery Follow Inattention to Minor Ills.
Older people should be especially careful of their health during the hot months, as high temperature has a peculiarly enervating effect that tends to disarrange the entire digestive system. The slightest indiscretion in diet is almost sure to be followed by bowel trouble and indigestion, but if care is taken to keep the bowels open by using a gentle laxative stimulant at the first sign of any irregularity, a great deal of the misery and distress can be avoided.

Strong, harsh and drastic physics should be avoided because of the shock to the system following their use. An excellent laxative, and one that is easy and natural in its effect on the stomach, bowels and liver, is found in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a compound of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that is pleasant to the taste and positive in its action. By cleansing the bowel tract and removing the foreign matter that irritates and inflames the tissue, a dose of Syrup Pepsin will quickly check the summer diarrhoea that is so prevalent. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle; large, family size, one dollar. A free trial bottle will be sent, postpaid, if you will write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 406 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

PENALTY PAID BY JORDAN FOR HEINOUS CRIME

Boston, Sept. 24.—Chester S. Jordan, sentenced to death for the murder, four years ago, at Somerville, of his wife, Honorah, whose body he cut up and packed in a trunk, was executed in the electric chair at the Charlestown state prison this morning at 12:14:30 o'clock.

Jordan went to his death calmly and without making any statement. He was seated in the electric chair and had received the contact of the fatal current within a minute and eight seconds of the time he entered the death chamber.

The current "was turned on at 12:09:13. Jordan was officially pronounced dead at 12:14:30. Nineteen hundred volts were used and the amperage was from 9½ to 10½.

The body will be given to the family of the dead man and will be buried at Crown Hill cemetery, Indianapolis, Ind., his old home.

A suspicious cabman was responsible for the discovery of the murder of Mrs. Chester S. Jordan, for which Jordan was executed this morning. The murder was committed at their apartments in Somerville Sept. 1, 1908.

During a quarrel with his young wife, an actress, Jordan struck her and knocked her down a stairway. The next day he dismembered the body, placed the head and other parts in a stove in an unsuccessful attempt to burn them and packed the remainder of the body in a trunk. His actions in driving about the city with the trunk aroused the suspicions of his cab driver, who reported to the police that he believed his passenger had stolen the trunk.

Jordan was born 32 years ago in Indianapolis, Ind., and while on the stage married Honorah O'Reilly, known in vaudeville as Irene Shannon. Jordan was brought to trial on April 20, 1909, and found guilty of murder in the first degree May 4, 1909. Four days later one of the jury became insane and was committed to an asylum.

The state supreme court refused to grant an appeal for a new trial, and Jordan was sentenced to die during the week of March 12, 1911. A writ of error being granted, an appeal from the decision of the state court was taken to the United States supreme court, but the appeal was denied May 27, 1912, and nearly four years after the commission of the crime Jordan was sentenced a second time to die.

The value of church owned property in the United States is $1,757,375,867. Only 25,000,000 of the 95,000,000 inhabitants of continental United States are church members. It doesn't take a prestidigitator to make an automobile turn turtle.

ADVANCING POETRY.

And now we are told that a new magazine, edited by a talented young Chicago woman, has been dedicated to the interests of poetry. Hail to it! If there is anything that the American people need as a sedative for their nervous condition it is some consistent consideration of the beauties of the English language in the popular, poetic conceptions of the day. There is a natural idea that Shakespeare, Milton, Tennyson and Browning are of an age that has passed, and the new magazine should endeavor to establish the eminence of the material and spiritual problems that confront the people of today. The magazine is being published under the direction of Miss Harriet Munroe, 543 Cass street, Chicago, and the first issue contains much interesting verse, and some that is deserving of deep and conscientious study.

According to Chairman Hillies, "the third term movement is on the rocks." That is the natural consequence of sailing uncharted seas.

The Colonel favors the recall of the President. That is what he has been working for ever since the act of the Seven Governors was staged.

Oregon is harvesting a great crop of hops, which may run up to 115,000 bales or even more. The farmer is still assured by Republican politicians that he needs a protective tariff to protect him from the competition of the pauper hop growers of Europe, and yet it is not very long since the farmers of Kent, in England, were holding mass-meetings and marching around behind brass bands in an effort to create sentiment in favor of a high duty on American hops.

A government conducted within the ring of an inner circle is not free to serve the people; we must break the circle, says Governor Wilson, and make it large enough in circumference to include all of us, so that the voice of the nation can be heard by those who are entrusted with authority. The Governor dislikes "rear-end" oratory. Because the orator must so often leave "a compound fracture of an idea behind him." But a speaker runs very little risk of doing this when he is capable, like Woodrow Wilson, of epitomizing a complex situation in a one-minute speech.

It must puzzle the Republicans a good deal, but all the commercial papers contain evidence that the steadily increasing prospect of Governor Wilson's election has no depressing influence on trade. The dry goods report in The Commercial and Financial Chronicle says: "A satisfactory business has been transacted in men's wear and dress goods notwithstanding the forthcoming Presidential election and threatened tariff revision." And here is a railroad item just as Woodrow Wilson's election is being conceded. A year ago there were 64,000 idle freight cars, while now there are 8,000.

When Theodore Roosevelt contradicts Woodrow Wilson he only damages his own reputation for veracity.

When Governor Wilson has a duty to perform there is no use in trying to stop him by warning telegrams.

The President gets only good news because he had his secretary put at the head of the campaign committee.

Aviation continues to be the most direct means of transportation to another world. There were three deaths on Saturday.

Senator O'Gorman has been described as a Tammany man, but he is not afraid to oppose Charles Murphy in the interests of the party.

Twenty-five members of a Republican ward club in Montclair, N. J., have joined the Wilson procession. Come early and avoid the rush.

Many Driven From Home.
Every year, in different parts of the country, thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there with your friends and take this safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough and sore lungs make it a positive blessing. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by F. D. Hall.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH.
The president of Hewitt Bros. Soap Company, Dayton, Ohio, says: "Buy two cakes of Easy Task soap for ten cents; use one bar and if it isn't just what we say it is, you get your dime back in a jiffy." It is a strong claim to say that Easy Task soap cuts the work of washday in half, but the fact can be proven by the evidence of thousands of delighted women.

NORA PARKER FOUND GUILTY BY THE JURY

Eighteen Minutes Consumed by the Jury in Arriving at Verdict. May Appeal Case.

The trial of the case of Ohio vs. Nora Parker, charged with causing and contributing to the delinquency of Ruby Hassler, 16, in admitting the girl to a house of prostitution as an inmate, which was continued last Saturday, resumed in juvenile court before Judge Hunter Tuesday morning.

The defense called three additional witnesses, Patrolman Shaw, Dr. W. E. Wiarych and Allen Davis, after which the defendant, Nora Parker, took the stand. Following this, the defense rested.

Prosecutor Smythe, for the state, waived argument, and Attorney L. C. Russell, for the defense, did likewise, and the court proceeded to the charge of the jury. Judge Hunter read the affidavit, quoted the statute and instructed the jury on the question of evidence. Having completed the charge, the court submitted the case to the jury shortly before 12:30, and that body proceeded at once to its deliberations.

After being out only 18 minutes, the jurors returned, finding the defendant guilty as charged.

The defense now has a period of three days in which to file a motion for a new trial, and after this has been passed upon, the court will impose sentence or grant a new trial.

ATHLETIC GIRL YANKED LOAFER FROM THE CAR

Haled Him to Police Court, Charging Him With Making Insulting Remarks.

New York, Sept. 24.—Miss Bessie Kapler, an athletic 18-year-old girl of the Bronx, arrested a young man in a Brooklyn L car last evening and personally haled him to the New Jersey avenue court, several blocks away.

There she charged him with having brought public humiliation to her because he had made comments on the tightness of her skirt that were heard by other passengers of the car. He gave the name of Max Chasowitz and was held in $500 bail.

"Look at her!" Chasowitz is alleged to have said. "I'll bet she walks like a chicken."

The young man continued to make like remarks. The other passengers giggled at Bessie's mortification. When the Sutter avenue station was reached the young girl seized her annoyance by the collar and pulled him off the train.

"What are you going to do with me?" asked Chasowitz, astonished.

"I'm going to lock you up," replied Bessie. "It's a pretty howdy-do when a girl can't travel in this city without having a loafer like you comment on her clothes."

Chasowitz attempted to break away when the pair got to the street. A crowd soon gathered and several men helped the young girl keep her hold and accompanied her to the police court.

BLACK HAND AGENTS BLAMED FOR MAN'S DEATH

Marion, O., Sept. 24.—That Anthony Francis was followed here from the East and murdered by Black Hand agents is the conclusion arrived at by the local police and postal authorities investigating the mysterious shooting. The authorities have been unable to learn anything except that Francis' unknown slayer was accompanied by three companions who picked a quarrel with Francis in Tony Sylvester's saloon.

BIG TIME ASSURED IN NEWARK ALL NEXT WEEK PLENTY OF ATTRACTIONS

There will be plenty of attractions in Newark all next week, both at the County Fair and in the city. For example: two daily airship flights by Aviator Freeman in a Wright Bros. machine, big motor cycle races Tuesday, big industrial parade Wednesday morning with $100 in cash prizes for the best floats; all Governor's Day Thursday, Pomona Grange meeting with prominent speakers present, splendid horse racing, fine county fair exhibits, a special exhibit from the Wooster Experiment station, three performances daily at the Orphanus theatre, stock company at the Auditorium, four motion picture shows, Moose carnival, Arcade orchestra music, Lyon tabernacle meetings, a daily decorated city, attractive displays in Newark stores and other features too numerous to mention.

As the Fair will begin in earnest on Tuesday and not on Wednesday as heretofore all exhibitors are urged to set their exhibits on the grounds on Monday. The motor cycle racing starts Tuesday afternoon and the prizes that are offered make certain a big list of starters and some fine sport.

Many business men have contracted for special decorations and the Fair advertising committee has contracted for street decorations. Many business men, fraternal and labor organizations are planning to enter the big parade on Wednesday morning. Now is the time to prepare for it and to get your banners and decorations ready. Remember the advertising committee will give four $25 cash prizes. Get busy now.

On most farms livestock are important factors in crop consumption and crop production. Ohio's $75,000,000 corn crop is marketed largely in the form of hogs and cattle and horses and sheep and poultry; and a fine thing it is for the fertility of the land that this is so. Much of the feeding value of this crop is frequently lost because it is improperly cared for. It is as old as Holy Writ that "man cannot live by bread alone," neither can a horse or a hog or a steer or a cow or a sheep or a chicken live by corn alone. To get the full feeding value out of the corn it needs balancing up. There is lots of hard work about raising a corn crop. What's the use of losing a third or more of it after the crop is safe in the crib? A lock on the grainary door won't catch the thief in the feed lot.

Feeding farm animals is one of the subjects investigated at the Experimental Station at Wooster and the results of these tests are illustrated in the Station Exhibit under the big tent at the County Fair here in Newark next week beginning Tuesday, October 1.

MAKES YOUR BACKACHE VANISH, DRIVES ALL RHEUMATIC PAINS AWAY

New Discovery Eases Stiff, Sore, Swollen Joints and Muscles While Backache and Bladder Disorders Disappear After Few Doses Are Taken

No matter how badly you suffer, how chronic your case may be, or what has failed to cure you, your pains will leave, your aches vanish and the torturous killing backache or rheumatism will bother you no more.

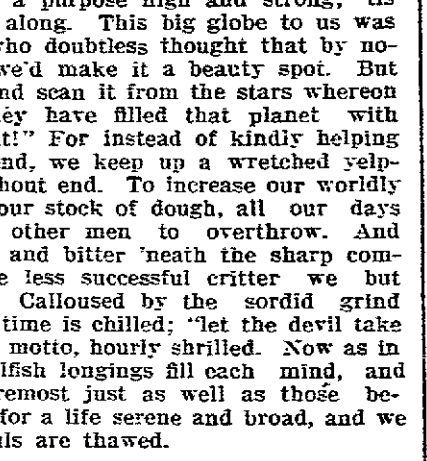

This is what Croxone, the new scientific discovery, does for sufferers of such troubles. It cures these diseases because it reaches the cause and removes it. It soaks right in through the walls and linings of the kidneys and cleans out the stopped-up, inactive organs like water does a sponge—neutralizes and dissolves every particle of uric acid and makes the kidneys sift from the blood all the waste matter and poisons that lodge in the joints and muscles to sear and irritate and cause rheumatism. It soothes and heals the delicate linings of the bladder and leaves the kidneys in a clean, strong, healthy condition, so they can filter the blood and keep you well.

If you suffer with backache—have pains in the neck, or sides—nervous or dizzy spells—a few doses of Croxone will relieve the congestion and you will be surprised how quickly all kidney, bladder and rheumatic troubles will disappear.

Croxone is different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else on earth ever used for the purpose. Pills, tablets, and other medicines merely stimulate the kidneys, at the best, giving only temporary relief. Croxone removes the cause. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves your suffering the very first time you use it. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You can secure an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case.

WHY WE'RE HERE

We were placed upon this planet for a purpose high and strong; 'tis a pity that we cannot grasp it as we go along. This big globe to us was given by the gods, who doubtless thought that by noble motives driven, we'd make it a beauty spot. But the gods look down and scan it from the stars whereon they sit, saying, "They have filled that planet with one big congnition fit!" For instead of kindly helping one another as we wend, we keep up a wretched relping, a contention without end. To increase our worldly thriving, to increase our stock of dough, all our days we're grimly striving other men to overthrow. And our hearts grow cold and bitter 'neath the sharp commercial goad; and the less successful critter we but jostle from the road. Calloused by the sordid grind most every heart in time is chilled. "Get the devil take the hindmost," is our motto hourly shrielled. Now as in days of yore most selfish longings fill each mind, and the devil gets the foremost just as well as those behind. We were placed upon this planet for a life serene and broad, and we cannot rightly man it till our arctic souls are thawed.

Written 1911, by Eugene Noble Foss, Mass. Over 100,000 Copies Sold

THE HUMAN PROCESSION

By O. Terrence.

GOVERNOR FOSS, 54 TODAY, ONCE A REPUBLICAN.

Eugene Noble Foss, governor of the grand old state of Massachusetts, will celebrate his fifty-fourth birthday today as a national, even an international, figure, having attained political eminence in about the shortest time on record. Three years ago Gov. Foss was a mere capitalist, a high private in the ranks of the Democratic army, which he had joined because of dissatisfaction with the tariff policy of the Republican. Elected to Congress in 1910, he was chosen Governor of the Sacred Codfish State in 1911, and this year was among those mentioned for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Gov. Foss was born in West Berkshire, Vt., Sept. 24, 1858. After two years at the University of Vermont, he settled in Boston, where he engaged in the manufacturing business. He speedily acquired a reputation as a shrewd and alert business man and financier. Besides the presidency of two large industrial concerns, he became a director of the Union Stock Yards company, the Chicago Junction Railway, the Massachusetts Electric company, the Eastern Steamship company, the Manhattan Railway company, the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company and other big corporations in several states.

Ten years ago Mr. Foss began advocating tariff revision and reciprocity, but he attained little prominence in politics until 1910, when he was elected to the Sixty-first Congress, carrying the strongest congressional district in Massachusetts for the Democratic party. Mr. Foss was very much surprised at being elected. He didn't think for a moment that he could succeed a Republican who had been given 14,000 plurality sixteen months before. Eugene Noble was given a hearty welcome to the House of Representatives by his "kid brother," George Edmund Foss, who had been a member of Congress from Illinois since 1895, and who was aligned with the stand-pat Republicans.

Mr. Foss made the tariff his great issue in his campaign for Congress, and again when he ran for Governor of Massachusetts last year. The Governor believes that the policy of high protection is responsible for all the ills that afflict the people of the United States.

"High protection is both a social and an economic crime," recently declared the Massachusetts Governor. "It has been the shelter for the exactions of monopoly and the real cause of almost all restraints of trade. Even as a means to private profit it has proved worthless. It is said that the cost of labor in the United States is so high that the product cannot be sold in competition with the product of foreign labor. As a manufacturer, I long since discovered that the American workman produces more in proportion to his pay than any other labor on earth. His efficiency is unequalled and his wage scale, instead of being an element of increased cost of production, is a measure of lessened cost. The high tariff has not only checked our commercial expansion and destroyed our merchant marine, but it has also led to a retaliatory policy on the part of other nations, and thus rendered the foreign markets still more difficult to reach."

Governor Foss is a member of the most exclusive social and commercial clubs and associations of the Bean City. In the matter of religion, he affiliates with the Baptists.

Wonderful Cures Reported in Germany.

The use of simple herbs as remedies instead of the more concentrated and usually more dangerous inorganic substances, has been revived very widely of late. In Germany a new school of physicians has arisen which depends not almost a whole of the pharmacopoeia and relies on an adaptation of the method of wild animals in curing themselves. . . . N. Y. World.

It was Dr. R. V. Fierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Berlin, N. Y., who first advocated the extended use of some of our native roots, such as Golden seal and Oregon grape root, mandrake and queen's root, black cherrybark. These are the chief ingredients in Doctor Fierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has been so well and favorably known for nearly half a century. A harmless cleanser and stomach tonic that nature has provided.

J. DONALD MATTHESON of Ossining, N. Y., says: "I suffered for over five years with what the doctors told me was a 'catarrh' condition of the stomach, associated with a 'catarrh' condition of the stomach, rheumatism, etc., to float a ship and naturally thought there was no cure for me, but after reading what eminent doctors said of the curative qualities of the ingredients of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I gave it a fair trial. Took the 'Discovery' and also the 'Pleasant Pills' and can truthfully say I am feeling better now than I have in years. I cheerfully give permission to print this testimonial, and if any 'doubting Thomases' write me I will 'put him wise' to the best all-around medicine in the country to-day."

ON SECOND THOUGHT.

An unmarried man can go down town when he gets ready. But a married man must wait until his wife picks the ravelings off his clothes.

ACCLIMATED. City Chap—Don't the noise and bustle of the city confuse you? Man From Small Village—No, indeed. All of my neighbors have lawn mowers, chickens and babies.

Marital Relations of Young Couple Cut Short by Better Half—General Court News.

Alleging that the parents of his wife influenced her to desert him by false and malicious statements, Jas. D. Walker is suing for a divorce from Bernice Ruth Walker. The plaintiff avers that he has been a good husband and that her act is one of gross neglect. By his attorney, Ralph Norpell, he prays for a decree of divorce.

ARTIFICIAL EGGS NEXT ON PROGRAM CLAIM CHEMISTS

Chicago, Sept. 24—Artificial eggs made from the air will be the next great feat of chemistry.

Dr. Paul Walden of Riga, Russia, president-elect of the ninth International Congress of Applied Chemistry, to be held in St. Petersburg in 1915, made this prediction last night just before his departure from Chicago with 150 world-famed chemists who are touring the United States.

No longer will the price of eggs be dependent on the hen if Dr. Walden's prophecy is realized.

HAPPY, LAUGHING CHILD SHORTLY

If Cross, Feverish, Bilious and Sick, Let "Syrup of Figs" Clean Its Little Waste-Clogged Bowels.

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough, laxative physic should always be the first treatment given.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are filled with foul, constipated waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious fig taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggists for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

FIRST MEETING IN FIFTY-SIX YEARS

To meet an old school mate for the first time after a lapse of fifty-six years is a rare experience, but it befell Richard Revercomb, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Eliza E. Lees, of Newark, O. Both are in Page county as the guests of relatives Mr. Revercomb being a visitor at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. L. Williams of Hamburg, and Mrs. E. E. Lees, being here to visit her nephew, Caspar Bradley, and other relatives. Their meeting was at the home of a mutual friend, entirely accidental.

When they compared notes they found that in the early fifties they were children of neighbors in Madison county, and as a youth of 19 and a maiden of 17 they were pupils in the same old log school house. Mrs. Lee's father, Willis Brainerd moved from Madison county immediately afterwards and the couple never met again until last Saturday.

HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE.

First, last and all the time, have a clean coffee pot. Don't wash it with common yellow laundry soap or powder because that makes it smell bad and gives the coffee a sickening taste. Easy Task soap sterilizes coffee pots and all cooking utensils, making them clean, sweet and wholesomely healthy. That's the beauty about Easy Task soap—it is just as good for cooking vessels as for cloth or painted work or glassware or china. Not an expensive soap—five cents a cake.

Overheard at the Office

"HAVE you got a Bible?" asked the Sporting Editor of the Girl Reporter.

"A Bible! What's the matter? Got acute indigestion or are you going up in an aeroplane?"

"Neither. But I want a mascot when I go near the firing line."

"The firing line! What are you talking about? Has a wire come in that a war's on?"

"Nope. But the boss is in one of his maddest, tearingest rages. He's sitting up front positively purple. And everybody who goes near him gets fired. There's been thirteen fired already. I've been going around all the morning with my fingers crossed. But I'd like a small Bible to carry in my vest pocket, as well. It's Friday, the 13th, too," he concluded gloomily.

"Guess I'll go softly," said the Girl Reporter. Wish I could let myself down out of the window by a rope, so I needn't go past him. But isn't that just like him? Probably he's made a mess of something, and so he takes it out on us."

The Sporting Editor agreed. "That's the truth. But it don't make it any easier for us."

"He makes me think of a man I saw once who was milking. As he got up he upset the bucket of milk. He ought to have kicked himself, but he kicked the cow."

"He's sore about the 'Hustler's' scoop on that bank affair yesterday."

"It wasn't the fault of a soul on the paper but himself," said the Girl Reporter. "He wasn't on the job, that was all. But instead of looking the fact straight in the face and making up his mind not to fall down that way again, he blusters around and discharges a whole lot who had nothing to do with it."

"There are lots like him," went on the Girl Reporter sagely. "I know a man who, when he makes mistakes and gets things all balled up at the office, goes home and takes it out on his wife and children. Nothing is fit to eat for dinner. If the children say two words they're liable to be whipped and sent to bed. A man like that has no right to be at the head of a business. And if things were run co-operatively, or by a board of employees or something like that, he wouldn't be there long to inflict the result of his own mistakes on others."

"That's so," agreed the Sporting Editor, who wasn't listening to what she was saying. "But I wish you had a Bible. I can't keep my fingers crossed all day. I've got to work. And I don't want to get fired now. I've just bought an automobile."

"When I go out to lunch I'll buy you a Bible," soothed the Girl Reporter. "Maybe I can get one second hand."

"How soon are you going to lunch?"

"If you'll go and engage the boss in conversation I'll slide out now."

"Not on your life. I'm not going near him till I get that Bible. And you'd better get yourself one of those good-luck charms. I tell you this office needs some good life lines, right now."

"The boss wants to see you," announced a small boy.

"Good night," said the Sporting Editor. And he went up the room with the fingers of both hands tightly crossed.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

The Fairy Castle by the Seashore

THE seashore? Daddy was charmed to hear that Jack and Evelyn were to be taken there by grandma the next day.

"I hope you'll have a jolly time," said daddy.

"When the other things no longer amuse you, you can build a fairy castle out of the silver sand."

"There was little Marjorie. When she went down to the shore she had a nice new spade and set of molds with which to play in the sand."

"I'm going to build a nice sand castle, like the one I saw in the picture," little Marjorie said to her nurse.

"Very well," replied the nurse. "I'll sit down and rest on that rock while you're building it."

"So Marjorie started to work with a will. Soon the white sand was flying right and left.

"Marjorie made a lovely castle, with tall towers and windows and nice doors, and then she built a wall on whose sandy sides she stuck shells.

"Now, I'll dig the castle well," she said, and she did dig some of it, but she was pretty tired by this time and she sat down beside a sand bank to rest and watch the waves for a few minutes.

"As she watched them, one wave larger than the others curled right up to the castle and broke over it.

"Marjorie thought that would wash away the castle, but she was surprised to see that it now began to grow until it was as tall as a real castle. A little green lady with a tail like a fish stood at the door and beckoned to her.

"Now, Marjorie remembered that in the last fairy tale she had read it said that the little mortal child must not go into the fairy castle by the sea, or she would become a little green mermaid and have to live there always, going swimming instead of walking and eating sea food instead of pie and cake and good things of that sort.

"Marjorie was hungry, real hungry, and so she shook her head when the little green maiden beckoned. Then splash! a strange thing happened. The big silver castle shrank till it was lost in the sand and the little green maiden, with a scowl on her lovely face, skipped back and slid into the sea.

"Wake up, Marjorie," said her nurse, "the tide's coming in and it's time to go home for lunch."

"Marjorie rubbed her eyes sleepily. Then she sprang up. Sure enough the castle was gone, the little waves trickling over the place where it had stood as the tide crept in."

It is now for the country and the world to pass judgment upon it." Bangor, Me., celebrated the proclamation with bonfires, ringing of bells and a salute of 100 guns.

In October, 1875, she was united in marriage with Frank H. Smith, with whom she lived until her death. Sixteen years ago Mrs. Smith became afflicted with cancer. Last March it took a malignant form, causing her rapid failure in health.

Mrs. Smith was a great sufferer, but bore up with remarkable fortitude and patience. In girlhood she united with the Methodist Episcopal church, of which she continued a member until her death.

She possessed a kindly spirit, which manifested itself especially tender in cases of sickness about her.

Cattle, Grain and Produce.

The exhibit from the STATE EXPERIMENTAL STATION alone will be well worth a visit by every farmer in Licking County.

Realizing that in recent years the fair has been the same old story, the Fair Board sought the assistance of the Newark Board of Trade attract and entertain the people.

As a result, the coming County Fair will be the biggest and best in all its history.

as Aviator Freeman is one of the very best men in the business, Fair visitors may feel assured of the two daily flights. The big Biplane will travel at the rate of a mile a minute and will circle over the city as well as over the Fair Grounds. The aviator will take several passengers on a trip through the air.

AN INTERESTING CONTRIBUTION

Bancroft, Eminent Historian, Tells Retrospections of Licking County History.

Retrospection to most of us signifies a disconnected series of day-dreams reviewing our own past, and we seldom think of the possibilities of such an arrangement in the interpretation of our personal and national inclinations. In "Retrospection," the latest work from the pen of Hubert Howe Bancroft, Licking county's greatest contribution to the world of letters, Mr. Bancroft has given inspiration for the development of civic purity and American prosperity by the recital and analysis of the growth of the American people.

Of particular interest to Licking county people will be the chapter on Granville and Licking county. It is here that the author relates incidents occurring in his early years. Back in the forties, when Granville and Newark were bound together by a strong political partnership, there was a different view taken of life and Mr. Bancroft has clearly brought this to his readers. It was a view of fidelity, partially born of the admiration of the settlers for their new homes, and the value of this can be appreciated in a wonderful degree by reading the work of the historian, and then visiting, if only for a few minutes, the Bancroft birthplace on the outskirts of Granville.

Seeing the backwardness, not to say cowardice, of capital, labor, politics and society alike to speak openly the truth regarding the abominations which imperil the honor and integrity, if not the very life of the republic, Mr. Bancroft felt constrained so far as he was able, to show to others what seemed so clear to himself the evils which threaten the commonwealth.

And yet with the evils he sees much that is good; he takes no sombre view of the future, but plainly and hopefully points out the path which as surely leads to permanent prosperity and happiness as that the other road is the way to certain destruction.

In Mr. Bancroft's mind words cannot picture the future glories of the Pacific, the last of earth and water to be occupied by the highest civilization.

AMUSEMENTS

Monday's Concert.

John Philip Sousa spent about three hours in Newark Friday afternoon, enroute from Columbus, where he gave two concerts Sunday, to Zanesville, where he appeared Monday evening. But those were "golden hours" for lovers of good band music and a large audience took advantage of his short stay and the Auditorium theatre was comfortably filled.

Mr. Sousa's reputation as a director is world wide, and he has a band of great merit. The program for yesterday's concert presented variety, ranging from the renowned numbers of the old masters and many of Sousa's own compositions to the ragtime "Everybody's Doin' It" played for an encore.

The concert's initial number was a rustic dance, "A Country Wedding," by Goldmark, and it was then made up of a descriptive number, "Tales of a Traveler," composed by Sousa. The big number of the program, however, was the large movement from "The New World Symphony" by Dvorak. In this more than any other was shown the beautiful tone shading and exquisite expression.

Mr. Sousa's "Tales of a Traveler" is divided into three parts: (a) "The Kaffir on the Karoo," (b) "The Land of the Golden Fleece," and (c) "Grand Promenade at the White House." Another number of his composition which possessed merit and was new to local people was a march, "The Federal."

Three soloists are carried, Mr. Her-

Bert L. Clarke, cornetist; Miss Virginia Root, soprano, and Miss Nicole Zedler, violinist. Mr. Clark selected for his solo, "The Southern Cross," of his own composition, and responded to the hearty applause with a bright encore number, Miss Root's "The Voice of Spring," by Strauss, was a delightful treat, showing to great advantage her wonderful control and beautiful, clear, sweet tones. As equally pleasing was her "Annie Laurie" and the snappy, clever little "Goose Girl." "Faint Fantasy," by Sarasate, was selected for the violin, and in its rendition Miss Nicole Zedler displayed wonderful technique and a master of expression. So greatly did she please that she was forced to respond with two encores.

Many of the encores by the band were the brilliant marches that have brought fame to Sousa, and the concluding number was "The Dance of the Cordials" by Sousa.

Youngstown Liked "Freckles."

The Youngstown Vindicator has the following to say of "Freckles," which appears at the Auditorium on Thursday evening, Sept. 26:

"Freckles," dramatized from Gene Stratton-Porter's popular novel of the same name, pleased a capacity audience at the Grand Opera House Friday night. The production was adequate if not pretentious. The company was capable and the play proved interesting. Nell Twomey, who made the dramatization has done remarkably well in transcribing the text of the book to the stage. Those who have read the book will have no trouble recognizing the characters and happenings as contained in the novel. Perry Golden plays the one armed hero well, and sings several songs. Robert Brooks did well as McLean, while Bernard Johnson deserves the honors of the cast as the villain, Black Jack. Ruth Gray looks young and charming as Mae.

aid to the wounded" is represented by Bessie De Voie, Eleanor Henry, Helena Saltzer and the most efficient corps of musical comedy field workers the local theatrical battle ground has witnessed in many a midsummer night's moon.

Fun crackers and laughter will tell the patrons of the theatre that "Louisiana Lou" has arrived. The engagement of the La Salle comedians, singers and dancers is a really remarkable one, making the occasion a popular musical comedy festival of the highest class and intrinsic theatrical worth.

NEWARK MAN HEADS MUSICAL SHOW ON ROAD

The Marple-Norris Musical Comedy company left Buckeye Lake this morning for a season's tour of the country. The company consists of 25 people and the members have been rehearsing at Buckeye Lake for the past three or four weeks. A number of Newark people are with the company. This attraction is said to be booked for Newark October 14, 15 and 16. Harvey Marple and John Norris well known in Newark are at the head of the company. Mr. and Mrs. Morris with an excellent musical act, are one of the features of the attraction.

$50 AND COSTS FOR SALOONIST AND BARTENDER

First of Hearings for Violations Last Sunday Was That of James Fitzsimmons and Henry Fresher.

Fifty dollars and costs for James Fitzsimmons and the same against his bartender, Henry Fresher, was the sentence pronounced by Mayor Swartz Monday afternoon in the first of the hearings of the saloonists and bartenders accused of violations of the saloon laws Sunday.

This sentence was pronounced after the hearing of the evidence and pleas of the attorneys. City Solicitor Roderic Jones prosecuted the case on behalf of the city and the defendants were represented by Attorneys Norpell and Martin.

The other defendants will be up for hearing this week. Howard Rabin and his bartender, Frank O'Neill, will get a hearing Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. O'Neill is charged with selling liquor on Sunday, while Rabin faces the additional allegation that his place was open on Sunday.

George Johnson's hearing was set for Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Charges of being open and operating a place where tipping and loafing are permitted, were filed against Johnson. His bartender, Ora Denny, is charged with selling on Sunday.

Louis Bolton, charged with keeping his place open, will get a hearing Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Robert Pollard, charged with the same offense, will have his hearing Friday afternoon.

MOOSE FALL FESTIVAL

There are few people who have not read of the famous New York Hippodrome, with its gorgeous displays of spectacular and aquatic wonders, its disappearing ballets, its swimmers, water walkers, log rollers, aquatic experts and water pan-tomimists, its human fish and its diving Venuses, mermaids and other denizens of Old Neptune's submarine kingdom who are brought, apparently, from the "heavens deep of the ocean cold" to display themselves and to entertain the thousands of the world's greatest metropolis. As many as there are who have heard of this wonder of the modern amusement world, there are still millions who have never had the opportunity of seeing these lavish displays of theatrical production and who have never been able to make the necessary journey to New York, where such a mammoth spectacle is possible. Several of the better known managers have contemplated the organization of a similar show for the traveling season, but each of these plans fell through, until it remained for J. Frank Hatch, a well known amusement promoter and owner, to put through an elaborate plan whereby such a scheme was made possible.

It is the J. Frank Hatch shows which have been secured to furnish the attractions at the coming Moose Fall Festival, and the main features of these shows will consist of an exact reproduction of the famous New York Hippodrome, with all of its aquatic and spectacular features, with real water, swimmers, divers, water walkers, log rollers, aquatic pantomimists, clowns and mermaids, trick, fancy and fast swimmers, water nymphs, mermaids, sailors, life savers and everything that goes to make a full and complete water exhibition, such as has never been seen outside of the great capitals of Europe and America. The performers who constitute the program of the Hatch Water Circus are all famous swimmers and water performers, many of them coming direct from the great New York Hippodrome itself.

AMBITION PILLS For Nervous People

At last they're here and here to stay. The first time ever offered to the people of Newark, the famous Wendell's Ambition Pills—the great nerve tonic that will put vigor, vim and vitality into nervous, tired out, all in, despondent people in a few days.

Any one can buy a box for only 50 cents and T. J. Evans is authorized by the maker to refund the purchase price if any one is dissatisfied. Thousands praise them for general debility, nervous prostration, mental depression and unstrung nerves caused by over indulgence in alcohol, tobacco or excesses of any kind.

As a brain food or any affliction of the nervous system they are unsurpassed, while for hysteria, trembling and neuritis they are simply splendid. Fifty cents at T. J. Evans. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid by Wendell Pharmaceutical Co., Syracuse, N. Y., who will gladly send one day's treatment free.

The Men Who Succeed As heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success today demands health. To all is to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. B. Allen, Sylva, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well. Try them. Only 50 cents at F. D. Hall's."

MAYOR HANDS OUT A JAIL SENTENCE

J. F. Lake, charged primarily with being drunk, was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail Tuesday morning by Mayor Swartz. His dose was a little heavier than is usually meted out to drunks but this was one with "criminals."

The arrest record alleged that Lake threatened to kill J. F. Poundstone and that he broke into the Poundstone building with intent to steal. Poundstone, Swartz and Wagonman McClure were called and took the man into custody. He was taken to the county jail to serve the days.

JOHNSTOWN INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION

There are going to be great times up at Johnstown for the next three days, when the lively little town will hold its Merchants' and Farmers' Industrial Exhibit. Wednesday is the opening day and arrangements are being made for the entertainment of hundreds of farmers of Licking county, who are certain to be interested in the exhibits.

One of the features of the opening day is an address by Freeman T. Eggleston, former speaker of the Ohio House of Representatives and one of the foremost orators in the state. A balloon ascension, all the usual carnival effects, and scores of stock and produce exhibits have been arranged for, and the little town will put on its gala attire and show itself to be a "good place to have a good time, good business and good results from your efforts."

NEWARK VOTERS MUST REGISTER

This being presidential year, the election laws require that the electors in all cities whose population is between 11,800 and 100,000 present themselves at their voting places for registration. In cities the population of which is over 100,000, the law requires that the electors register every year, but Newark, coming below that figure, is in the class in which the voters register every presidential year.

The registration days this year will be on Thursday, Oct. 3, Thursday, Oct. 10, Friday, Oct. 18, and Saturday, Oct. 19. On these days the voting places will be open for registration purposes from 8 o'clock a. m. until 2 o'clock p. m., and from 4 o'clock p. m. until 9 o'clock p. m.

As an eleventh hour salvation for those whose business takes them out of the city on the regular days, the voting places will be open on Nov. 4, the day before election, between the hours of 5 and 7 in the evening.

The work of the registrars has been extended this year by a recent statute, which provides for the taking of data concerning applicants who are right to register is questioned. The forms furnished to the registrars for this purpose assume the proportion of a Bertillon record, having spaces for the apparent height, weight and age of the applicant, as well as the color of hair and eyes and any distinguishing marks or scars.

WILL INVESTIGATE CAMPAIGN GIFTS OF COMPANIES

Washington, Sept. 24.—The Senate Committee investigating campaign expenditures has called on the Secretary of State of New York for transcripts of the testimony taken during the Armstrong insurance investigation in 1905 and 1906, at which it was disclosed that leading insurance companies had made large contributions to the presidential campaign funds of 1904.

George B. Cortelyou, Republican National Chairman in 1904, testified in July that his only knowledge of these contributions came from insurance records, where it disclosed that some companies had made contributions of $40,000 to $50,000.

Were tariff favors distributed by Congress during the Payne-Aldrich revision of 1909 as a return for contributions to the Republican campaign fund of the previous year?

The special senatorial committee charged with the responsibility of investigating campaign contributions will try to find the answer to this question. It has been learned that the committee has issued summons for former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, Representative W. B. McKinley of Illinois, and Representative John W. Weeks of Massachusetts.

Patience is a virtue, but that does not alter the fact that very often it is a necessity.

Leadership means superiority of product—a superiority which produces leadership and is proved by leadership. It means more than this. It means everything associated with the word FIRST.

The Remington Typewriter is first in history, first in prestige, first in quality, first in recent improvements, first in size and completeness of organization, first in distribution, and first in service to the customer.

AURORA MIXED PAINT appeals to the practical painter, because it's made by a practical house. It appeals to the builder, because it spreads farther and lasts longer.

After all, the labor is the largest element of cost in a painting job. To buy a cheap paint is to waste all the skill and waste at the bargain.

AURORA is a pure lead and oil paint, re-inforced by the correct scientific proportion of inert pigments. These are not to be cheap, but to strengthen the quality.

LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL, GLOSSY HAIR, NO DANDRUFF---25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Hair coming out?—If dry, brittle, thin or your scalp itches and is full of dandruff—Use "Danderine."

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of Dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle, and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that all you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

TABERNACLE

his sermon, and he was visibly affected by this latest evidence of the loyalty pledged him by the church people of this city.

No Religious Appetite.

"John's message," he finally continued, "was a message of preparation. The reason why so many of you don't get more out of the sermons that are preached is because they don't come with any appetite. Suppose that you were to invite me to your home for a Sunday dinner—remember, I just said 'suppose'—and I should refuse to eat of the good things that you had prepared for me. You'd wonder what was the matter with me, and you'd find that I had stopped on the way over at some second class lunch counter and filled up on four or five bowls of thin soup. That's the way with you church members. You're so filled with the thin soup of worldliness and sin that you can't hear the word of God. If we had better hearers we'd have better sermons."

The message of John to the people of that time, the wickedest people in the world, was one of preparation for success. "The young people of today want to put all their people in the store windows and they haven't any left for the shelves," commented Dr. Lyon. "Success in everything—in agriculture, in education, in business and in religion—consists in getting ready. We need the message of John and people like John today."

No, It's Good Democracy!

"When I go down to lay in my winter coal—and I have to pay two prices for it—it is a question of preparation. I wouldn't care so much about the price I have to pay if it went to the dealer, but it all goes to a man over in Pennsylvania who owns the anthracite coal mines of the country. What God made for the people belongs to the people and should be used for the people. If that's socialism, then I'm a socialist. And they say that the man over in Pennsylvania is an officer in a church. I'd like to have him in my church for a while. He'd either get out or I would. You can't have a revival in a church with such men as him in it."

"These days a man who steals $2 goes to jail. If he steals $2,000,200 he goes to—the United States penitentiary. In Colorado they put up the senatorship at auction; it goes to the highest bidder."

In the Wrong Place.

"Why, the other night, up in Michigan, the wife of a congressman turned to her sleeping husband and said, 'John, wake up! There are thieves in the house.'"

"No, no," answered her sleepy spouse, 'they're all in the senate.'"

"If a man crushes out his competitor by thievery and roguery, he is as much a man as the thief who holds you up in the dark of night, at the you-up in the dark of night, at the pocketbook."

"Prepare ye the way of the Lord! How far could the liquor business have its hand on the throat of the American public if everyone who professes to be a Christian were indeed a Christian? How many a politician will go about and speak boldly against the monopolies and trusts, and yet like a whipped cur, stick his tail between his legs and slink into the alley door of the biggest monopoly of the world—the liquor traffic—the monopoly that's cursing our country. I would rather have my right arm paralyzed than cast a vote for a candidate who would not go right out against this evil, the devil's best friend on earth. Am I talking plain enough to you?"

Scores the Church Members.

"A great revival is needed in the church, the revivalist advocated. 'John was talking to the bon ton, the cream of the community, the social aristocracy of his time, just as I'm talking to the best people in Newark tonight.' The speaker then told of recently asking a man if he was a 'Christian.'"

"Mind your own business. I'm a church member," came the reply. Undaunted, Dr. Lyon retorted, "Well, I wouldn't let a little thing like that keep me from being a Christian."

"The people that John was talking to claimed to be the chosen people. Many people have an idea like the young lady who, although once neat and tidy, became careless and slovenly. One of her friends spoke to her about it. 'Why do you dress so slovenly and act so negligently?' she asked, and the other replied, 'Oh, well, what's the use of dressing up? I'm engaged now!'"

"People think that because many years ago, back in New York state or across the water, they were taken into some church as members, they are headed straight for glory!"

"John was speaking to the people who today would be called theologians and doctors of divinity. One man today will say, 'I am of Wesley,' or 'I am of Calvin,' or 'I am of Alexander Campbell,' or 'I believe in Luther.' But don't you trust your religion to a Calvin, a Campbell, a Luther or a Wesley! John was speaking to the cultured religious people of his time, and he said that God was able to raise up, even from the stones on which they were standing, children chosen unto Him."

Bench Warmers Are Squirming.

And then the fiercest vials of the speaker's appreciation of the average "Christian's" negligence were scattered over the audience, burning lasting scars into the memory of those who felt their true effect. "You who have been bench warmers and haven't been earning your salt in the churches, have got to wake up, or the saloon keepers, the gamblers and the outcasts are going to make you ashamed of yourselves because of your laziness. Prepare ye the way of the Lord!"

There was an impressive silence for a moment and then the courage of the man who so vigorously denounced inactivity and listlessness received an encouraging applause.

"The message of John," the speaker concluded, "applies to the individual. Why is it that people don't believe in revivals and evangelism? It's because away down deep in their lives there's some sin that they are not going to give up, and sin is to be forsaken before it can be forgiven. Prepare ye the way of the Lord by surrendering your life to God. You make the conditions right and the love of God will fill your life and keep it straight."

The Supreme Organizer.

The speaker then told the well known story of the cathedral master who once almost refused to permit Mendelssohn to play on his own organ. "A greater man than Mendelssohn is here tonight," he declared. "Jesus Christ, the Son of God. You try to play on the organ of your life, and your soul brings forth only discord and monotony. Let Jesus have his way and he will make your life a channel of blessing. Do not wait for suffering, for sickness, for business adversity, or for the death of loved ones to soften your heart and bring you closer to Christ. Accept Him now. Let every hill of pride and arrogance be leveled and make straight a pathway through your heart unto God."

And as the meeting closed, Mrs. Powell's charming voice, supported by the intense personality of her religion, asked the question in song that have led to the making of many channels of blessing in the lives of men—

"Is your life a channel of blessing? Is the love of God flowing through you?"

Are you telling the love of the Saviour?

Are you ready His service to do?"

The Noon Services.

The cordial reception extended by A. H. Heisey & Co. to the proposal of Mr. F. E. Holloway of the Lyon evangelistic campaign, to hold a meeting at regular intervals at the company's factory for the men and women employed at the plant, was a practical assurance of the hearty, courteous reception which the group of Lyon workers will be accorded at such services.

The party consisted of F. E. Holloway, leader; Mrs. Frances C. Allison, director of the woman's department of the Lyon evangelistic campaign; Mrs. Grace Powell, the soloist of the Lyon party; Mr. Frank L. Johnson, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and several local workers, Messrs. Ewart, Dodd, Sopher, Roberts and others.

The party was on the premises promptly at 12 o'clock. Mr. Ewart played the organ and Mrs. Powell led the singing. After prayer by Mr. Johnson, Mrs. Powell sang a solo and was followed by an address by Mr. Holloway, who commenced with the men a study of the Gospel of John. The first chapter furnished the basis of the talk. Mr. Holloway had first distributed among the audience small pasteboard covered Gospels of John, so those who desired to do so could follow the speaker in his references to passages.

Mrs. Allison is going to conduct services of like character for the women and girls employed in the Heisey factory Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock. She will also hold meetings of this character in such factories and other places where women and girls are employed as shall be opened to Dr. Lyon's work.

General Revival Notes.

The revivalists are evidently not satisfied with the way the Newark church members open their pocket-books when the "dough pails" are passed each evening. The attendance on Sunday donated about two cents each, on an average, and Dr. Lyon felt called upon to give a public statement to this effect. "This money doesn't go to me," promised the revivalist. "I don't get a cent of it. It's for the current expenses of the tabernacle."

Babies are not to be admitted to the tabernacle. The possibility of their causing excitement at a critical point in some sermon has been eliminated by the creation of nursery headquarters at the Fifth St. Baptist church, where mothers may leave their babies in the care of competent women.

Big hats are barred from the services. That is, Dr. Lyon wants to see the people behind the hats and has given instructions that all ladies are to remove their new fall bonnets before the services begin.

Messrs. Julius Juch, Ernest Marquart, John P. Adam, Louis Deutsch, Wm. Schenk, Philip Baker, Henry Vogelmeier and Herman Elsner have returned from Youngstown, Ohio, where they attended the annual convention of the German-American Alliance on Saturday and Sunday. The eight men were delegates from the German American Alliance of Licking County, an organization which has over 240 members. The organization in the State has a membership of 50,000. Six hundred delegates were present at the Youngstown meeting, the six hundred delegates representing over 20 cities in Ohio. The Newark men are happy in the fact that they succeeded in bringing the 1912 convention to Newark. Heretofore the convention has always been held in the larger cities in the state, but the Newark contingent made a special invitation and succeeded in defeating Canton, Springfield and Cedar Point which also made a bid for next year's meeting. The exact time for the convention next year has not been fixed but it will be either in the month of August or September.

RINGWORM IN RED SPOTS ON FACE

Rough Crust on Top. Continually Worse. Spread Over Face and Legs. Terrible Itching and Burning. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured Completely.

Stratford, Iowa.—"Three years ago this winter my seven year old son had ringworm on the face. First it was in small red spots which had a rough crust on the top. When they started they looked like little red dots and then they got bigger, about the size of a bird's egg. They had a white rough ring around them, and grew continually worse and soon spread over his face and legs. The child suffered terrible itching and burning, so that he could not sleep nights. He scratched them, and they looked fearful. He was cross when he had them. We used several bottles of liniment, but nothing helped. I saw where a child had a rash on the face and was cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I decided to use them. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment about one month, and they cured my child completely. I cannot be thankful enough for it is terrible if a child's face is all broken out as ours was."

NEW ORGANIZATION TAKES CHARGE OF PROPOSED TEMPLE

Made Necessary by Change in Plans of Masons—Old Officers in Charge.

The Newark Masonic Temple association, an organization formed to erect the new Masonic Temple at Fourth and Church streets, closed up its affairs at a meeting held Monday night and all the property, notes and moneys were turned over to a new organization known as The Newark Masonic Temple company.

When the first named company was organized, it had not been decided to do a business for profit. Later the plans were changed and the Masons decided to construct a building from which a revenue would be realized so a new company was necessary under the laws of Ohio.

The new company organized by re-electing the officers who directed the affairs of the old association. They are:

President—Frank L. Beggs.
Vice President—O. C. Parrill.
Secretary—F. M. B. Windel.
Treasurer—C. L. V. Holiz.

There will be three rooms fronting on Church street for stores and two smaller rooms fronting on Fourth street. Then the dancing hall will also be a source of revenue.

A local man who was a passenger on the Baltimore and Ohio Chicago train last night obtained the following figures as the result of a straw vote taken on board the train.

Three of the voters cast their ballots for Debs, and a lone elector clung to the peerless one, chalking up one vote for Bryan.

HANOVER BOY FELL FROM TOP OF 40-FOOT POLE

Word received in Newark Tuesday tells of the miraculous escape from death of Spencer Priest, age 25, a telegraph lineman employed by the Western Union, when he fell from the top of a 40-foot pole at Portsmouth Saturday, landing on a cement sidewalk which was cracked by the force of the blow. Mr. Priest sustained a fracture of the left wrist and suffered much pain from the shock of the fall but was otherwise uninjured.

The victim of the accident is well known in Newark where he has numerous relatives. He is a native of the vicinity of Hanover.

A brother in telling of the injury, states that Priest was on top of the pole and had finished his work and was preparing to descend. He removed his safety belt and clung to an insulator peg while he swung around the pole to use his "spurs" in the descent. He struck a live wire and the shock caused him to lose his balance and swung free from the pole. His weight was too great for the peg to which he was holding and it broke, letting him fall to the sidewalk below.

He fainted as his companions reached his side and physicians were called and an ambulance summoned. As he was raised from the sidewalk, he revived, only to faint again from the pain.

He was rushed to a hospital where a careful examination failed to reveal any other injuries than the fractured wrist.

After he recovers from the shock of the fall, he will return to his Hanover home to remain until his fractured wrist mends enough for him to return to his work.

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

Take no risks; the chances are against you. The best way is to be cautious and use your good judgment on all enterprises. Traveling may be unfortunate for you.

Those born today will be enthusiastic workers, but will lack executive ability. Unless a good early training gives them the necessary poise, they should seek alliance with others, rather than depend on themselves.

A GOOD BUTCHER.
There's a good butcher in Newark. His clothes, his aprons, his shirts are always so clean and white that people who buy their meats of him know the meat must be clean and good. We don't need to name him right out, but his wife uses Easy Task soap and that cleans a butcher's clothes, aprons and linen.

I consider FRECKLES by Gene Stratton Porter one of the best stories I have ever read. It is one of those clean, intensely interesting tales the memory of which will always be fresh and pleasing.

It leave a "pleasant taste in the mouth" and a warm feeling around the heart.

I can only wish and hope that you will read and enjoy it as much as I did.

Sincerely
A. L. Norton
